

As an amateur radio operator I hope 2 things.

1)

That the FCC would stop making morse code a requirement for hf i mean knowing how to use packet is not a requirement of 2 meter so why should morse code keep hams like myself from upgrading to hf frequencies

2)

That the FCC not open the powerlines to internet traffic and increase the noise level already present on hf bands

thanks for Listening, and may God Bless

John